

Sale of Leaven (Hametz)

The Torah tells us that during Passover, “No leaven shall be found in your houses for seven days” (Exodus 12:19). The rabbis understood this to mean that one could not own any hametz during the holiday. To prevent the financial hardship that would result from discarding all of one’s leaven on an annual basis, the rabbis developed a legal mechanism whereby an individual could sell his/her leaven to a non-Jew for the duration of the holiday.

PLEASE REMEMBER that even if you plan to be away from home for the entire holiday, you must still sell all the hametz you own. Similarly, should you own other property, or store leaven products in your office, you must sell the hametz stored in those locations as well.

While there is no charge for the selling of leaven, it is customary to include a charitable contribution with the “Sale of Leaven” form. Checks may be sent to the Jacksonville Jewish Center with "Sale of Hametz" in the memo line, or you may send your checks directly to the following causes: the JFCS Food Pantry, and/or MAZON - A Jewish Response to Hunger.

PLEASE FILL OUT THE FORM AT RIGHT and return it to the Rabbi’s office with your tzedakah donation no later than the 6:00 PM on Friday, April 19. You may also give this form & donation directly to Rabbi Jonathan Lubliner before 9:30 AM on Monday, April 22nd. Since Jewish Law requires hametz to be sold no later than Passover Eve, the deadline is a firm one of necessity.

A sign up sheet is also available in the lobbies of the synagogue and schools.
